

Anne Brunswic

Biography

The well-respected French author and writer, Anne Brunswic, was born in 1951 into a Central European Jewish family, which extends to Jerusalem, London, Berlin, New York, Saint Petersburg.... Over the years she has taught literature, journalism and documentary cinema in Paris. After two books of fiction in 2000 and 2001, she published two travel narratives with Actes Sud (one on Palestine in 2004 and another on Siberia in 2006). She is currently working on her next book which deals with the legacy of the gulag in Russia (forthcoming 2009). Anne continues to free-lance as a journalist for cinema reviews and the radio.

Books in print

Sibérie, un voyage au pays des femmes (Siberia. Journeys in a Country of Women), Actes Sud, 2006

Bienvenue en Palestine (Welcome to Palestine. Chronicles of a Season in Ramallah) (new augmented edition), Babel 2006

Bienvenue en Palestine, chroniques d'une saison à Ramallah, Actes Sud 2004

Qu'est-ce que tu fais là ?, éd. Delphine Montalant, 2001

A Contre-Oubli, éd. Delphine Montalant, 2000

In Italian:

Bienvenue en Palestine (Welcome to Palestine): Benvenuti in Palestina, éd. Le Lettere (Firenze), 2006

Recent articles

Carélie : La complainte de la grande baie et du lac gelé (Karely : The Lament of the Great Bay and the Frozen Lake), Le journal des Lointains, éditions Buchet Chastel, Paris, January 2008

Bosnie, Un printemps au goût de cendres (Bosnia : Spring with a Taste of Ashes), La Pensée de Midi n°20, éditions Actes Sud, March 2007

Palestine, Juste une image (Palestine : Just a Photograph), Action Poétique, January 2005

Israéliens, Palestiniens : en finir avec les stéréotypes (Israelis, Palestinians : Doing away with Stereotypes), La Pensée de Midi n°14, Winter 2005

Radio reportage

Carnets de voyage en Carélie (Travel Notes from Karly), Radio suisse romande, « Un dromadaire sur l'épaule », five 30-minute radio broadcasts (17 - 21 March 2008).

Prizes and Awards

2007 Stendhal Grant for the Karely project (the canal of the White Sea)

2005 Stendhal Grant for the Siberia project

Short listed for the Ulysses Award for Literary Reportage 2005

Literary Award -Témoin du monde RFI 2004